

Regis Manor Primary School - Terms 3 and 4 2017-18

Dear Parents/Carers

Once again we are offering a wide range of activities during and after school for all key stages. Staff members are very keen to have as much participation as possible and we hope that your child is interested in joining one or more activities. I have listed the activities below, together with the staff members who will be taking each activity, times, locations and what your child will need to bring. Please can you complete the attached slip, detailing the club/s your child would like to come along to and return it via your child by Monday 27 November 2017 (no forms will be accepted through the office). Clubs will start week beginning 8th January.

Clubs are often oversubscribed and we apologise if your child does not get into the clubs that they have requested. We are sure you will appreciate the time given up by staff to offer your child extra activities for them to enjoy and I trust you will encourage your child to attend regularly and show a committed and responsible attitude. Should the club be cancelled we will endeavour to provide at least one days notice. If for any reason it is cancelled on the day you will receive a text message/phone call from our office.

If you have more than one child and you would like them to attend an after school on the same evening, please staple your child's reply slips together - thank you.
